Filling Pieces

The brand was established in 2009 in Amsterdam by owner and designer Guillaume Philibert.

There is a strong concept behind the brand and its products. The shoes are the filling piece in a gap; the gap between Haute Couture and Street Couture. Filling Pieces succeeds in filling this gap with good quality products and great design.

The shoes are sporty and classy chic at the same time and connect people and styles. Before Filling Pieces there was no such thing as collaboration between styles, Filling Pieces made it happen.

Stocklist
